

Entrepreneur Impact Challenge Terms and Conditions

Ownership of Ideas

○ Palladian does not guarantee any investment for the ideas or winners of the competition. However, if any judges or mentors express their interest in a business idea, Palladian will facilitate introductions and provide professional guidance to support the development of the idea at a strategic level.

○ Palladian will not be liable for any direct contact or unsolicited business ideas submitted by applicants outside of our official review process. All communications and submissions must follow the designated procedure to be considered.

Participation in the Impact Challenge

○ Shortlisted participants must attend the Impact Challenge on the specified date. Teams unable to attend will be disqualified.

○ Participants hereby give their full consent to the recording, broadcasting, and distribution of the event across social media and other platforms for promotional, marketing, and publicity purposes, with the understanding that their participation may be used in various media formats.

Disqualification

○ The organizers reserve the right to disqualify any team or participant found to be in violation of the terms and conditions or involved in unethical behavior during the competition.

Confidentiality

○ While the organizers will take appropriate steps to maintain confidentiality during the screening stage, participants should be aware that ideas presented publicly during the pitch event may not be protected as confidential.

General

○ By applying, participants agree to comply with these terms and conditions, as well as any additional rules communicated by the organizers.

○ The organizers reserve the right to modify the terms and conditions at any time, with prior written notice to the participants.
